

7. Run the microphone from above the center of the windshield to the center of the dash.

8. Connect the microphone harness to the phone harness.

9. Connect the control unit to the phone harness.

10. Because of the length of the Microphone wire you will need to place the unit below the radio. There is enough room there for it and the harness.

