

as seen in
The New York Times

Brad's
MUSTANG
Site

Info for Classic and Late-Model
Mustangs

NEW ADDITIONS

- Home
- My Mustangs
- Viewers' Rides
- Your Stories
- 2003 Mustang
- Cobra
- Mach 1
- GT
- Pony
- LX
- Concept Mustangs
- 2005 Mustang
- more...
- Classic Mustangs
- History of Mustang
- Classic Ads
- Production Data
- Shelbys
- Mustang II
- Late-Model Mustangs
- Fox Bodies
- Roush
- Steeda
- Sean Hyland
- Saleen
- Team Shinoda
- Advertisements
- Calculators
- Mustang Shows
- Miscellaneous Pics
- Computer Stuff
- Desktop Wallpaper
- Font
- AIM Icons
- Screensaver
- Clip Art
- Mustang Movies
- Bullitt
- Gone in 60 Seconds
- more...
- Mustang Songs
- Mustang Logos
- Owner Clubs
- Links
- Contact Me
- Email
- Guestbook
- My Home Page

Welcome to my Ford Mustang site. My name is Brad Barnett, and as you can see, I'm a Mustang fan. I own two Mustangs (1973, 2001), and my fiancé drove a Mustang until I totaled it the day before my 23rd birthday. I collect toy Mustangs and my high school's mascot was the Mustang. I am a member of Magic City Mustangs of Birmingham, as well as the Mustang Club of America.

I opened this site in May of 2001 to host several pictures of and information on my favorite Mustangs--classic and late-model--for all you Mustang fans out there. This site was listed in an article on Mustangs in the New York Times on April 19, 2002, in which I was quoted several times. Much of the text will be provided by Patrick Covert's Ultimate Mustang. This is a great book with pictures from every model year, starting with concept Mustangs from the early 60's through the 2001 Bullitt GT. It's also got production numbers from 1964 1/2 - 2000.

Enjoy my site, and Happy Mustanging! 🇺🇸

last updated 08.19.02